THEY ARE FOR WAR

Russia's Welcome to France
Now Explained.

OPEN HOSTILITY TO GERMANY.

The Demonstrations at St. Petersburg of a Warlike Character.

Russian Officers Anxious for a Fight—Outspoken Utterances Against England—The Queen's State Dinner to the Kaiser Exceeded in Splendor by the Czar's Banquet to the French Officers.

LONDON, July 29.—To-day's dispatches from St. Petersburg say that the enthusiasm of the French reception cannot be exaggerated. A significant feature of the day's festivities was the effective fraternity of the Russian army officers for the officers of the French fleet.

The opinion of the army is practically the only public opinion of any influence in Russia, and when the officers of the army talk war and are impatient of peace even the Czar is obliged to listen, if not to yield.

Warlike Demonstrations.

All the correspondents agree that the demonstrations were of a warlike character. No sentiment was breathed that did not signify an alliance of Russia and France for war, and while no reflections were uttered on Germany in any of the formal speeches or addresses, the utmost hostility, mixed with contempt, was expressed, more especially by the Russians, for Germany and the Kaiser.

The French officers and men had been cautioned in advance not to utter any reflections on England, owing to the relationship of the Czarina and the Prince of Wales, and this command was carefully obeyed. It is said, however, that the Russians themselves were outspoken in utterances against the English.

The general impression given to the correspondents was of a brilliant assemblage who looked upon each other, and acted and talked as allies in a grand struggle soon to come.

Surpassed the Queen's Display.

The grandeur of the dinner given by the Czar to the French officers may be judged from the fact that 650 places of gold plate figured on the imperial table.
Both Moscow and St. Petersburg were drawn on for the means to make a display barbaric in its magnificence, and far exceeding in splendor the Queen's dinner to the German Kaiser.

The scene was Oriental rather than European, and gave significant proof of the vast treasures accumulated by the Romanoff family in the course of centuries of empire.

ELLIOTT FOUND GUILTY.

The Jury Bring in a Verdict of Murder in the Second Degree.

COLUMBIA, O., July 29.—After being out five days the jury in the Elliott murder trial rendered a verdict that William J. Elliott had been found guilty of murder in the second degree for the killing of Albert C. Osborn, on the 23d of February last.

When the verdict was announced the prisoner pulled his Grand Army button from the buttonhole in the lapel of his coat, and threw it at the jury. Instead of weakening, Elliott grew more revengeful and his face took on a look of wildest anger.

Notice of motion for a new trial was made, and so sentence was not passed.
The Court fixed Saturday as the time for hearing arguments on the motion for a new trial.

By the laws of Ohio murder in the second degree is punishable by life imprisonment, the court having no alternative in the matter.

The verdict is no surprise as the long wails of the twelve men in their room had given out the impression that there was some doubt as to the grade of the crime, and if there was not some disagreement the verdict would be as rendered.

A Child's Face Gashed by a Dog.

MATAWAN, N. J., July 29.—While the little daughter of Mike Gorman was playing she was attacked by a dog belonging to John Malcolm. The brute threw the child upon the ground and bit her savagely. Again and again the dog sunk his fangs into the child's face and arm. There seems to be no doubt that the dog was mad. It was killed soon afterward. The child's wounds were cauterized.

The Brokaw Leave Long Branch.

LONG BRANCH, N. J., July 29.—Mr. and Mrs. Isaac V. Brokaw, parents of Frederick Brokaw, the Princeton College athlete, who was drowned here about a month ago while attempting to save the lives of three servant girls, have left for Moonshine Lake, Me., with their surviving children.

Thomas L. James for Governor.

TRENTON, N. J., July 29.—It is said that the Republicans of New Jersey are seriously considering the advisability of nominating ex-Postmaster-General Thomas L. James for Governor. Gen. James, since his retirement from the Cabinet of Gen. Garfield, has been a resident of New Jersey.

Dosed Him With Rum.

PITTSBURGH, July 29.—Tommy Fay, aged 5 years, is lying at the St. Francis Hospital from the effects of liquor alleged to have been poured down his throat by his parents. The little fellow has been unconscious since Sunday. His parents were arrested and sent to the workhouse.

Two Girls Drowned.

St. Johns, N. B., July 29.—Lizzie Allen, aged 14, and Mary Caples, aged 13, were drowned while bathing near Marsh Bridge last evening. Their bodies were recovered later.

HIGH-LIFE SCANDAL.

Philadelphia's Social Circles Agitated Over a Reported Engagement.

PHILADELPHIA, July 29.—Society circles in this city have been set in a flutter by the rumor that Mrs. John O. Bowman has eloped with Dr. Ellsworth Hewitt.
Mrs. Bowman is the wife of Capt. Bowman, a prominent and wealthy lawyer.
Dr. Hewitt is said to be the nephew of ex-Mayor Hewitt of New York. It is said that they were seen together.

Mrs. Bowman is very pretty and not over 25 years of age. All accounts agree that Mr. Bowman is a very handsome man. She is a blonde of bewitching charm and was married eight years ago, at the age of 17. Her husband gave her everything that was in his power to give. At their home in the city he kept five servants and otherwise maintained a splendid household.

In addition to this he had under contract a very attractive residence at Devon, which is now building. The Bowmans have three children, one of them a baby. The children are very interesting. Altogether, there appeared to be nothing in the world worth to disturb the serenity of the Bowman household.

THEY MET IN WASHINGTON.

The Republican National Committee in Session To-day.

WASHINGTON, July 29.—The Republican National Executive Committee is in session at the Arlington Hotel in this city to-day. The meeting was to have been in Philadelphia, but a change of plan was decided on and several members of the committee did not know until last night that they were to meet here.

If Mr. Quay insists upon retiring it is supposed that Clarkson will be chosen chairman, and that either Fossenden or Mr. Payne will succeed Clarkson as vice-chairman.

Omaha is early to the front with a bid for the National convention. Col. C. F.
Scott is on hand with authority to present the claims of that city. He says that Omaha is going to do all she can to get the convention.

BURYING THE VICTIMS.

Thousands Attend the Funerals at St.
Mande To-day.

PARIS, July 29.—The victims of the railway disaster will be interred this afternoon in the cemetery of St. Mande, the Commune meeting the burial expenses.
There is no doubt that the ceremonies will be witnessed by one of the largest crowds ever gathered in the neighborhood of this city.

The assistant station master at Vincentes and the driver of the second engine have been arrested on the charge of having contributed by carelessness to the collision.

Factory Closed by a Strike.

QUINCY, Mass., July 29.—The trousers in John F. Drake's boot and shoe factory went out on strike and the factory was shut down, throwing 200 hands out of work. One of the strikers was requested to instruct a boy in the dressing of vamps. This he refused to do and left the shop, the other strikers following him out. Mr. Drake says he will not employ union men hereafter.

Success With a Sand Mold.

PITTSBURGH, July 29.—There has just been cast at the armor plate mill of Carnegie, Phelps & Co., at Homestead, an armor ingot 80 inches wide and 23 inches thick, weighing 25,000 pounds—the largest armor plate ingot rolled in this country. The ingot was cast in a sand mold for a test, and the material proved much superior to that test in a metal mold.

Arrested for an Assault.

NEWARK, N. J., July 29.—Sophia Fredericks, aged 19, of Lyons Farms, was assaulted on Ridge avenue last night, by Henry Warner, who struck her on the head with a monkey wrench and attempted to outrage her. Four men attracted by her screams rescued the girl and overpowered Warner and took him to the lockup. The girl's head is badly injured.

Tried Suicide by Heli-Karl.

ROME, July 29.—Col. Laybourne, well-known in New York in connection with the Catholic banking scheme, attempted suicide here yesterday in the Japanese style of haki-karl by disemboweling himself with a razor. He now lies in a very precarious state, with little hopes of recovery. Monetary losses are said to be the cause of the act.

The Sugar King is Dead.

NEW YORK, July 29.—Frederick C.
Havenmeyer, the last of the older generation of the celebrated sugar refining family of the Havenmeyers, died last evening at his home at Throgs Neck, Westchester County, where he had lived for years in comparative seclusion and in dual style.

The Fisher's Island Drills.

NEW LONDON, Conn., July 29.—The naval drill-off Fisher's Island are attracting a good deal of attention in that locality, and large numbers of people frequent the vicinity daily. Everything in the shape of water conveyance is monopolized.

The Davis Will Case.

BUTTE, Mont., July 29.—The Davis will case was up again to-day, and most of the time was taken up with arguing on procedure. The court decided to give the opening and closing to the proponents, giving the contestants the burden of proof.

Bold Attempt to Rob a Business Office in Newark.

THE DESPERADO WELL ARMED.

He Ordered the Cashier to Give Him All the Money in the Place.

It Was Shortly After Noon and the Safe Was Locked—Failing to Secure Any Booty the Highwayman Made a Desperate Break for Liberty—Chased by a Crowd but He Managed to Escape.

NEWARK, N. J., July 29.—One of the most daring robberies ever attempted in Newark in broad daylight was frustrated by the coolness of two employees of the New Jersey Oil Company at its office, 70 Liberty street.

While Bookkeepers Charles Chichester, of Brooklyn, and William Parsons were in the office at 1:30 o'clock a young man wearing a check suit, tall, well built, and with a broad-brimmed sombrero on the back of his head, walked up to the desk. Parsons arose from a low chair in which he was sitting and walked to where the stranger stood. Suddenly the latter whipped out a pair of revolvers and leveled one at Chichester and the other at Parsons. At the same time he made known his mission by saying in a commanding tone:

"Give Me All Your Money."

Neither Chichester nor Parsons was badly frightened by this unlooked for demand of the bold highwayman—infact they were uncommonly cool, but after it was over they could not tell just how they kept so. The fellow moved cautiously along the desk until he reached a wire door leading into the private office. The door closed behind him with a spring latch, but he seemed not to notice this. Walking up to Chichester, with the revolver still elevated, he demanded in gruff tones:

"Where's the money?"

There was, fortunately, but little in the office, and Chichester replied, "Help yourself," as he moved away from the desk. The man opened
